CITY OF IRVINE

OFFICE SOUGHT: Councilmember

10:24 A.M. / P.M.

NAME: Frank McGill

AGE: 72

OCCUPATION: Retired Urban Planner

I am running because I am outraged that after the voter's 63% mandate to restore the Veteran's Cemetery to its original location in the Great Park and stop its replacement by massive development, the Mayor and two Councilmembers voted otherwise.

If I am elected to the City Council, I will vote to immediately begin construction of the Veteran's Cemetery on the originally planned, approved, and financed site in the Great Park.

The current Council majority is very much pro development with little regard for our quality of life and protecting the Irvine environment. I will be strongly responsive to the citizens rather than to big developers and work to serve the needs of the entire community.

I am a former Air Force pilot who flew combat missions in Vietnam. My wife and I have lived in Irvine for 42 years, raising two boys. I also served on my HOA Board for 8 years, and was a regional commissioner and coach for AYSO soccer. I have a Master's degree in Urban Planning and worked for the Orange County Planning Department for 30 years where I helped create 15 planned communities.

I respectfully ask for your vote. Please visit: www.VoteForMcGill.com
