ANNOUNCEMENTS/COMMITTEE REPORTS/COUNCIL REPORTS

Councilmember Carroll, as the City’s appointee to the Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG), announced that SCAG would be hosting four public hearings in Southern California, including one at Irvine City Hall, on Thursday, August 22, from 1 to 3 p.m. for the purposes of receiving public input on three methodology options to determine future housing needs. Information about the hearing is available on the City’s website at cityofirvine.org.

Mayor Shea provided the following announcements:

- On Saturday, August 17, the Irvine Animal Care Center is participating in the nationwide “Clear the Shelters” adoption event. From 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., all adoptions will be $20, which does not include licensing or puppy wellness fees. In addition, the Irvine Animal Care Center’s “Make Your Pet a Star Photo Fundraiser” will be taking place through August 31.
- The William Woollett Jr. Aquatics Center will host its annual “Splash-In Movie and Recreation Swim” on Saturday, August 24. The Incredibles 2 will be shown on the big screen during recreation swim. Admission is $2 per child and $4 per adult. The pool opens at 6:30 p.m., with the movie beginning at dusk. Lifeguards will also be on duty.
- The Community is invited to the 11th annual Senior Fitness Expo on Friday, August 30, from 9 a.m. to noon at Rancho Senior Center. The free event geared toward adults 50 and older features health screenings, educational presentations, and a variety of the latest health and fitness exhibitors. Guests will learn how to improve their well-being through fitness demonstrations including yoga, balance and stretching, circuit training, and more.
- For the 14th consecutive year, the City received the Achievement of Excellence in Procurement Award from the National Procurement Institute. This award recognizes the Purchasing team’s innovation, professionalism, productivity, and leadership in its commitment to acquiring quality goods and services at the best value to the City.
